Kyle also agrees with Peggy Arquilla and Allen Nassau.

Mike Kretch read a public comment from Rob Pyzel. Mr. Kretch read, "My comment would be to include additional language in the recommendations from the working group that any signage for retail marijuana establishments comply with the local jurisdiction's sign regulations in regard to maximum size, maximum height, location on the site, building materials and color rather than try to draft some general regulations specifically for signs that become problematic for the individual local jurisdictions to enforce.”
